

ROSWELL DAILY RECORD.

VOLUME 4.

ROSWELL, NEW MEXICO, MONDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 10, 1906.

NUMBER 164

BIG REGULAR 10c TABLETS AT 5c AT PRICE & COMPANY

RUSSIAN MASSACRE

HUNDREDS ARE KILLED AND THOUSANDS WOUNDED.

CARNIVAL OF SLAUGHTER

Soldiers and Mobs Murder Jews.—Houses and Shops are Plundered.—Jews Held Responsible for Deeds of the Terrorists.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 10.—The predictions made in these dispatches of a Jewish massacre at Siedlice, Russian Poland, unhappily have been justified by the fighting which broke out Saturday night and developed yesterday into a carnival of indiscriminate slaughter and pillage in which the soldiers and the mob took part. The unfortunate Jews were shot and bayoneted in the streets, houses and shops were sacked, valuables were carried off and offered for sale by the soldiers. In addition to the Jews some Christians and some officers met death in the fighting. A conservative estimate places the number of victims at 140. Jewish fugitives throng the railroad stations in a panic. Early reports of the massacre place the responsibility at the door of the terrorists, but the fugitives declare that the soldiers would never have been allowed to get so completely out of hand without connivance or actual direction of their officers.

Passengers who arrived at Warsaw gave the following account of the slaughter. After the murder of policemen by the terrorists Saturday night and the firing of a volley by the troops into the crowd, which resulted in the killing of two citizens and the wounding of many, the terrorists decided to inaugurate a general campaign against the troops and police. Sunday morning twelve patrolmen and soldiers were killed. As a result a Lithuanian regiment marched into the Jewish quarter, shooting right and left. The troops were joined by the hooligans who co-operated in plundering and destroying. Late Sunday a Kalina regiment arrived from Biala and instituted measures to stop the program.

Siedlice is a town of 30,000 inhabitants, half of whom are Jews.

Siedlice, Sept. 10.—Six buildings in the big bazaar of the city are now in flames, adding another terror to the killing and plundering which has been going on here for 36 hours. Frequent firing is heard, but because of the general panic it is difficult to learn what is transpiring. As far as it is possible to learn there have been about sixty persons killed and two hundred wounded. Siedlice is surrounded by troops who do not permit the people to leave. There seems no doubt that the terrorists are responsible for provoking the massacre by their fusillades from the roofs and windows Saturday against soldiers and policemen patrolling the streets. The troops surrounded the buildings from which the firing came and poured volleys through the windows and doors. This was followed by a search of the premises which soon developed into wholesale plundering and subsequently into a massacre of the owners who defended their property were killed.

Warsaw, Sept. 10.—Artillery was used in Siedlice this morning. The buildings on Pienka, Warsaw and Aleina streets have been destroyed. According to reports received here two hundred Jews were killed and 3,000 wounded during the pillaging.

The rioting and shooting in Siedlice continues. The revolutionists are firing at the soldiers from windows, and the troops reply with volleys. A Lithuanian infantry regiment took the principal part in the massacre.

According to the latest advices from Siedlice the artillery fire this morning was directed against the houses from which the troops had been fired upon. Over 150 Jewish shops were looted. Three thousand prisoners were taken and were beaten without mercy. The Jews of Warsaw are also in fear of attack.

FOR RENT.—Furnished rooms, 100 South Lea ave. 6414

GIVES ALL FOR LOVE.

Heir to Duchy Marries a German Shop Girl in New York.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Count Hans Ferdinand Von Hochberg, heir to the duchy of Rostend, an officer of the Kaiser's body guard, a nephew of Princess Marie of Saxe Weimar and cousin of the Grand Duke Michael, was married yesterday in a boarding house at Ossining, New York to Louise Ernestine Carow, a German shop girl, and in so doing the count severed the ties that bound him to his family, his regiment and associates in Germany. The count met Miss Carow, when she was a clerk in a glove store in Berlin. To break off the attachment between them he was sent to America. Here he obtained employment as a chauffeur, and recently he sent for Miss Carow.

TOWN DESTROYED.

Side of a Mountain Broke Away and Overwhelmed the Town.

Tiflis, Caucasasia, Sept. 10.—Practically without warning the side of the mountain rising above the town of Kwarell broke away and a sea of liquid sand and mud swept down upon the town and obliterated it. Some 255 persons were buried alive. Fifty bodies have already been recovered.

THE MAINE ELECTION.

The Labor Question and Resubmission the Features of Campaign.

Portland, Me., Sept. 10.—A fair day, important issues and the determination of the party leaders to bring throngs of voters to the polls early today. The chief interest centers in the attempt of the American Federation of Labor to defeat Congressman Littlefield for re-election, because of his refusal to support certain labor measures. Resubmission to the people of the prohibition law has been the keynote of the campaign made by the Democrats against Governor Cobb, the Republican candidate for governor.

Be sure to get a chance on the doll and foot ball for every 10c purchase of school supplies at Payton's.

Special Rates to Albuquerque Fair via Automobile Line.

Tickets on Sale September 15th to 20th from Roswell to Kennedy over Automobile Line and Santa Fe Central and return $20.60. Good returning from Kennedy until September 23rd.

Mrs. F. C. Hunt is able to be out again after a week's illness.

SCHOOLS ARE OPEN

GOOD ATTENDANCE AT ALL THE BUILDINGS.

PLENTY OF MONEY

School Term Will Be for the Full Nine Months.—High School Being Held at the Pauley Building.

The public schools of Roswell opened today for a nine months' term with a good attendance. The enrollment will be given tomorrow. The Central, North Hill and Pauley buildings were opened, and all were well filled. The High School is being held in the Pauley building, and there were about one hundred students present.

The Woolverton Business College is still conducting its business in the auditorium of the Central building, and will continue to do so until its own building is completed. In this way the school board will realize rental money from this room, and by holding High School in the Pauley building, will retain legal possession of that property, which would be forfeited by failure to maintain school there.

This term will be nine months in length, it is thought, as there was a balance of over three thousand dollars from last year to begin the term with.

Book Covers for all your books when bought at Payton's

The Record today gives you twelve pages, and still we did not have time to write nor room to print the details of the big excursion to Carlsbad nor the proceedings of the Sunday school convention. Business is good in Roswell nowadays, and the Record is getting a share of the general prosperity.

Gang of Thugs at Butte.

Butte, Mont., Sept. 10.—Two gangs of thugs held up fourteen men in this city last night within two hours. In a quarrel over the spoils one highwayman shot and fatally wounded another. There were no arrests.

JEROME ATTENDS CONVENTION

Wants to See That Platform Suits if He is Nominated.

Lakeville, Conn., Sept. 10.—District Attorney Jerome has decided to attend the New York Democratic state convention at Buffalo Sept. 25. He said that he was not going as a delegate, but as a man whose name has been mentioned for the governorship, and his chief aim would be to see that the platform should be satisfactory to him should the convention nominate him.

Notice.

The Norfleet sisters, of Artesia, will be here next Monday to give an entertainment in the M. E. Church, South.

SECRET MEMORANDA.

Covering the Illegal Transactions of Stensland Bank.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—Secret memoranda covering the illegal transactions in the Stensland bank were found yesterday among the effects of Frank Kawalski, the teller whose suicide followed the exposure of the bank's condition. The record kept by Kowalski it was said indicates apparently that within a year Cashier Herring personally obtained more than one hundred thousand dollars by the same means used by Stensland in looting the bank.

LIGHTED HIS OWN FUNERAL PYRE.

Negro Trying to Burn His Way Out Jail Was Cremated.

Minneapolis, Tex., Sept. 10.—In an effort to burn his way out of jail yesterday, Silas Johnson, a negro, lighted his own funeral pyre. He was cremated while a crowd of people surged around the jail watching his last agonies through the iron window bars but unable to save him. Johnson was arrested for drunkenness, and started a fire in his cell hoping to escape.

Pursuing the Rebels.

Havana, Sept. 10.—A special relief train of armed cars left here last night for Consolacion. It is reported that Pino Guerrera has been driven east from Consolacion, and a plan has been formed to catch his force between the batteries of two trains.

Sunday School Convention Ends.

The Pecos Valley Sunday School convention adjourned last night after completing its program. New officers were elected with authority to fix the time and place of the next annual meeting. They are as follows:

J. E. Carper, of Roswell, President.

S. W. Gilbert, of Artesia, First Vice President.

Robert Miller, Hagerman, 2d V. P.

Miss Leora Jones, of Roswell, Secretary.

Louis Gishwiler, of Roswell, Treas.

All were elected to serve until the close of the next annual meeting.

A fine large boy arrived last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gill.

A SPECIAL ON

..DRESSERS..

ALL THIS WEEK.

A nice Solid Oak Dresser only

$8.00.

A very pretty Birdseye Maple Dresser only

$18.50.

An elegant Quartered Oak Dresser only

$19.50.

Look in the window. Something doing every day

Ulery Furniture Co

THE LEADERS.

AFTER CASTRO

GENERAL HERNANDEZ WOULD BE PRESIDENT OF VENEZUELA.

OIL MAN ARRESTED

H. Clay Pierce, of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, Arrested to Compel His Attendance as a Witness in a Civil Suit.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel Hernandez, of El Mocho, formerly Venezuelan minister at Washington, the leader of the conservative party and a veteran campaigner. News was received yesterday that the General is near the western frontier of Venezuelan or Columbian territory, preparing to strike the first blow in the armed conflict that he hopes will depose Castro and seat himself in the presidential chair.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Tribune today says: Venezuela is again threatened with a civil strike. The man ready to lead the fight against President Castro is his enemy of long standing General Jose Manuel